

THURSDAY, APRIL 6, 1911.

I hereby announce as a candidate for Constable for the town of Cookeville at the election on April 27, and respectfully solicit the support of the voters.
J. W. HUGHES.

We are authorized to announce John Burton as a candidate for Constable at the city election on April 27.

We learn that R. B. Capshaw is a candidate for Mayor, and the only announced one. Is this not an agreeable surprise to the people of Cookeville? He came to the town a boy, 35 years ago, has spent his life's work in this city; is centrally located, has business interests that appear equal to all parts of the city, and is not identified with any faction. His real worth is shown by the success of his own business. With the present tax burden on will not our people be glad for an opportunity to support Mr. Capshaw?

Putnam county politics of the Republican faith and bolting Democratic brand are getting there with both feet. The number of state offices they have captured is astonishing. John E. Oliver, Oscar Bussell, G. W. Alcorn, Harry Dietz, Bessie Holladay and W. R. Carlen have landed nice, fat jobs, and others have been promised. Then there are the Honorables O. K. Holladay and A. R. Massa. S. F. Carr, Democrat, also holds a state position. Putnam is certainly on the place holding map. We were about to overlook the most important one in the bunch, Judge D. L. Lansden of the supreme court.

For ease and grace and comfort, too, there's nothing like a Queen Quality or Krippendorff Oxford.

LaFayette

Hello, Miss Alice Williams, is it snowing in town this morning? You better come out in the country where you can get plenty of wood to burn.

Is there anybody out in Texas takes the Herald near Frisco? If there is will they please hand Charlie Brooks this letter and tell him to write to the Herald.

OTIS WILLMORE.

Never can tell when you'll masn a finger or suffer a cut, bruise, burn or scald. Be prepared. Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil instantly relieves the pain—quickly cures the wound.

Sparta, Route 8

I am taking the Herald and think it is the finest paper printed.

Mr. and Mrs. Haze Johnson visited Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson Sunday.

Would like to see a letter in the Herald from Lillie Allen of Cookeville, Route 8.

Death visited our community and claimed for its victim the little son of Mr. and Mrs. S. France.
